Place: Sam's Church
Attending: Joanne Dombrowski, Louise Van Vliet, Sam Ballinger, Cick Clair and Gitta Reck.

The meeting was called to order and minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer reported a balance of $2,410.49.

OLD BUSINESS

Tri-City: Louise, Joanne, the Pappases, the Fleishers and Harry went; the reported that it was a nice event.

NEW BUSINESS

1) Joanne reported that the Pavilion should be done by Mayy 11, 1987, so that we should have our first Thursday evening May the 14 in the Pavilion again. A Newsletter will be ready before May 14.
2) The fee for using the church is $15.00 for an evening or an afternoon (Ethnic Sundays). Sam will pay the church after our last visit there, it will cost the club between $255.00 and $285.00.
3) Ethnic Sunday on Mother's Day. Joanne will take a vote to see how many people would like to have an Ethnic Sunday on Mother's Day.
4) Volkdance directory: A directory will be purchased for the club. There will be a listing in the directory for the club with a phone number for the City Recrational office and Ballingers name and phone number.
5) We talked about an Open House and decided to have it in the Fall, perhaps between the Waynesville Sauerkraut Festival and our Fall workshop.
6) Fall Workshop. Sam talked to Grace Wolff about our anniversary workshop. Grace wrote to Viltis. There will be an article about the club in the magazine and one about Solomon Pavilion. Grace also wrote to Jane Farwell, who will come and teach. Grace did not get a reply yet from Dick Crum. David Vinski is the back-up-teacher. Grace will send letters to friends and other clubs to inform them of our anniversary-workshop. Ann Ballinger will take care of the two meals, Saturday evening meal and Sunday brunch. The cost for the whole weekend is $24.00, which includes both meals and all teaching. Burkhart center has been reserved, it will cost the club $100.00.
Dick Clair will take care of publicity for workshop. Sam suggested we make posters ahead of time to advertise the anniversary workshop.
7) Membership: Sam reported that we have 93 members and that we will gain 2 new members at the beginnig of May.

Meeting was adjourned.

Respecfully submitted,

Gitta Reck
