CAMP

ITS METROPOLITAN WASHINGTON'S

FOLK DANCE CAMP

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

MAY 29TH, 30TH and 31ST, 1971

GLENN BANNERMAN

Bannermans Comin',
The Cloggin' Champ,
Hes bringing more Clogs
To this here camp.
He'll have you laughin',
And Ladies Chainin',
You gotta admit
Hes Entertainin'.

MARTY KOENIG

Koenigs Comin',
That Researchin' Smarty,
Hes bringin' his Researchin' Self
To our Party.
Hes loosenin' up for a Researchin'
Ball,
And Marty can Lick any Feet
In the Hall.

ETHEL RAIM

Ethels Comin',
The Slav-singin' Dame,
If you haven't heard her,
Man that is a shame.
So Pucker your Puffys,
And Clean out your Ging,
Unravel yourself,
And get ready to Sing.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES AVAILABLE AT NO EXTRA CHARGE

Boating, climbing, hiking, vollyball, soccer, tennis, miniture golf, nature trails, wild flower collecting, singing and swimming (with or without), are just a few of the activities to titilate your fancy.

ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATIONS

The cabins are clean and comfortable with inside plumbing. They are unheated, so be sure you bring enough bedding to stay warm. If there is someone you prefer to be billeted with, if you'll indicate as much on your registration form, we will try to oblige. We'll do our best, but we make no promises. Couples will be expected to share a cabin with another couple. You may, if you desire privacy, camp on the grounds in your own tent or camper.

WHAT TO BRING

Comfortable dance shoes and clothes; a folk costume (if you have one); sheets and bedding; electric blanket, if desired; towels, soap & toiletries; flashlight, warm sweaters or jackets for those cool West Virginia Mountain nights; musical instruments; raincoats (we hope you won't need them); bathing suits for those who desire them; energy, enthusiasm and a devil may care feeling.

ABOUT THE SCHEDULED ACTIVITIES

A new and exciting schedule is in the planning stages. The addition of Ethel Raim adds a new dimension to our camp. She will be teaching songs to some of Marty's Bulgarian and Yugoslavian dances (Dances which Marty claims have never been shown in this country before). Special events, depending on the weather, are also in the oven, tho you can be sure of our traditional CABARET PARTY on Sunday night.

ABOUT THE FOOD

We have the assurance of the camp management, that the food will be most plentiful. Your Directors are demanding the very best be put forth so as to please the palates of even the most particular. You can expect big breakfasts, tasty lunches and outstanding suppers, not to mention the snacks and special eatables at our parties.

ABOUT THE FEE

For a picayunish pittance, a pint-sized piece of your productivity, a minuscule measure of your makings, a tiny tad of your take-home pay, in other words, $45.00, we invite you to become a part of this majestic experience, that can only be described as the Buffalo Gappening Happening. Sorry, no discounts. Please send full amount with registration. No deposits can be accepted. This fee covers all meals, all activities, snacks, bed and board, with the exception of beer and soft drinks. THERE ARE NO EXTRA CHARGES. We will refund full registration fee if notified by May 1st. No refunds will be made after that date. If we forgot to mention it, its "ADULTS ONLY". Sorry, no part-timers and no visitors. Make all checks payable to BUFFALO GAP CAMP, IFD.

HOW TO GET THERE

If you are driving to camp from points north of Washington, D. C., pick up Beltway (Rt.495) and cross Cabin John Bridge. Leave Beltway at Exit 9, Route 66 West. Stay on Route 66 for about 7 miles and exit on Route 50 West to Winchester, Virginia. Stay on Route 50 and go through Winchester and on to Capon Bridge, West Va. Cross the bridge and take the first right. Stay on paved road for approximately 5 miles and watch for sign. Turn left on unpaved road to camp. Drive slowly on this road. If you are coming by public transportation, get off bus at Capon Bridge and call the camp from there (304-UI 62691). Someone will pick you up and drive you in.

WHEN TO ARRIVE

After breakfast (9:30 AM) Saturday, May 29. The first meal will be lunch (12:30). Dance sessions begin about 2 P.M.

WHY YOU SHOULD COME TO MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND AT BUFFALO GAP

Because its breathtaking, and you can breathe the air. Because its clean and you can taste the water. Because its freedom and you can be yourself. We can't think of another reason, unless its that perhaps you want to be part of a wild and wonderful folk dance experience. Get your registration form with check attached into us as soon as possible. We want to include you this time. See you there.
