ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATIONS

The cabins are clean and comfortable with inside plumbing. They are unheated, so be sure you bring enough bedding to stay warm. If there is someone you prefer to be billeted with, just indicate as much on our registration form and we will try to oblige. However, we cannot promise. Couples will be expected to share a cabin with another couple. You may, if you desire privacy, camp on the grounds in your own tent or camper. We cannot, however, reduce the fee for those who desire to camp.

ABOUT THE FOOD

As always, we have the assurance of the camp management, that the food will be most plentiful. Your directors are demanding that the very best be put forth to please the palates of even the most particular. You can expect big breakfasts, tasty lunches and outstanding suppers. In addition, the snacks and special late night munchables always find their mark. The only complaint we've ever had was "Too Much".

Comfortable dance shoes and clothes; a folk costume (if you have one); sheets and bedding; electric blanket (if desired); towels, soap & toiletries, flashlight, mirror, warm sweaters or jackets for those cool West Virginia mountain nights; musical instruments; bathing suits (if you prefer them); raincoats and rubbers (we hope you won't be needing them); and a burning desire to have the time of your life. We'll supply everything else.
