FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 2 THRU MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 5
CAMP RUSSEL OGLEBAY PARK, WHEELING, W. VA.

For the finest in folk and square dancing, nationality meals, singing, good fellowship and fun, plan now to come to our Fall Camp this holiday weekend.

THE STAFF

ATANAS KOLAROVSKI of Skopje, Yugoslavia has for fifteen years been leading solo dancer of Tanec, State Folk Dance Ensemble of Macedonia, Yugoslavia, as well as their choreographer. For the past eighteen years he has also been visiting villages in every corner of Macedonia seeking original and authentic steps, rhythms and styles for his dances. His first tour of the United States in 1964-65 was a popular success. This year's visit is by demand. He will come to Oglebay from Stockton, California where he is teaching.

RICKEY HOLDEN, experienced teacher, has travelled many years for the State Department of the United States Government. Abroad he has worked with people of other nationalities and since returning to the United States has conducted workshops for teachers throughout the country and Canada. Mr. Holden is Research Director for Folkraft Records in Summit, New Jersey.

AL SCHWINABART is an excellent American Square Dance Caller, round dance teacher and folk dancer, a combination hard to find. He is a regular staff member at the Oglebay Camps, Pittsburgh area camps and teaches weekly in the Cumberland, Maryland area. You will enjoy his work in teaching fundamentals and calling dances.

WILLIAM HERMAN has a large repertoire of nationality dances which he teaches and performs with ease. He is one of the original Oglebay Institute Folk Dancers and is chairman of our Folk Dance Camp Committee.

HENRY LASH our historian has attended our camps for twenty-five years, plays all the international folk songs we sing and is our expert on supplying the finest of nationality meals, a tradition of the Oglebay Camps.

Other Oglebay Institute staff members include: Phil Maxwell, Ree Cook, Elizabeth Paris and Rose Chiazza.
