

THE MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCERS
Sponsored by Dayton's Division of Recreation

INVITE YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS
TO A WEEKEND OF

INTERNATIONAL FOLK DANCING

FEBRUARY 8 and 9, 1975

LOHREY COMMUNITY CENTER
2366 Glenarm Avenue
Dayton, Ohio

Featuring:

MAE FRALEY

MAE FRALEY of Rockville, Maryland, is widely known in the Baltimore and Washington, D.C., areas as a result of many years of dancing with and teaching at numerous folk dance clubs and various other organizations in that area. She has been a member of the Quadrille Club since its inception. In this area, Mae has been a frequent staff member for workshops held by the Oglebay Dance Institute, Wheeling, West Virginia, and the Kentucky Dance Institute, Morehead, Kentucky. She has travelled widely in Europe and South America and possesses a number of ethnic costumes.

Schedule:

Saturday	Registration and request dancing	1:00-2:00 and 5:00-6:00 p.m.
	Teaching session	2:00-5:00
	Dinner	6:30
	Dance Party	8:00-11:00
Sunday	Request dancing	1:00-2:00
	Teaching session	2:00-5:00
	Snack, and request dancing	5:00-6:00

How to get there: 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles east of I-75 on US-35, use Smithville Road exit. Go south 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ miles, past Immaculate Conception School and Church, turn left at Highridge Avenue, then left at the next street, which is Glenarm Avenue.

Please send reservations to Mr. Carl Mills, 1317 Wilmington Avenue, Dayton, Ohio 45420. Include check or money order, payable to MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCERS, for $3.50 for each dinner. Dinner reservations must be received by January 30.

Registration for MAE FRALEY weekend

NAME(S) _____

ADDRESS(ES) _____

I (We) plan to attend Entire weekend @ $7.00 _____ Sat. evening @ $2.00 _____
Sat. afternoon @ $1.75 _____ Sun. afternoon @ $2.00 _____
Sat. dinner @ $3.50 _____ Syllabus @ $1.00 _____