

January 8, 1976

Dear Leaders and Instructors of Folk Dance,

On February 14 and 15, in celebration of the American Bicentennial, the Miami Valley Folk Dancers will present for a workshop of early American dancing, James Morrison, who in 1975 became the Director of the American Country Dance and Song Society. After attending his Pittsburgh workshop, I felt that the folk dancers, who have been coming to our weekends, would appreciate the unique opportunity to celebrate our nation's birthday with us, doing the charming dances of our forefathers, under the direction of this excellent young instructor and musician -- and the group agreed!

Under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, Jim has researched and revived the early American dance tradition. He edited A Choice Selection of American Country Dances of the Revolutionary Era 1775-1795, published by the Country Dance and Song Society of America, and is preparing more books on early American dance.

Please inform your dancers of the dates now. The fee will be only $8.00 for three instruction sessions, syllabus, Saturday dinner, and three hearty snacks. This weekend promises to be in the finest Miami Valley Folk Dancer tradition. Do share in making it the best we have ever had on the occasion of our "Happy Birthday, U.S.A."

A complete invitation will be sent to our mailing list before January 25. Send additional addresses for mailing to Ann Ballinger, 210 Virginia Avenue, Dayton, Ohio 45410.

We are looking forward to seeing you on February 14 and 15.

As always,

January 8, 1976

Dear Leaders and Instructors of Folk Dance,

On February 14 and 15, in celebration of the American Bicentennial, the Miami Valley Folk Dancers will present for a workshop of early American dancing, James Morrison, who in 1975 became the Director of the American Country Dance and Song Society. After attending his Pittsburgh workshop, I felt that the folk dancers, who have been coming to our weekends, would appreciate the unique opportunity to celebrate our nation's birthday with us, doing the charming dances of our forefathers, under the direction of this excellent young instructor and musician -- and the group agreed!

Under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, Jim has researched and revived the early American dance tradition. He edited A Choice Selection of American Country Dances of the Revolutionary Era 1775-1795, published by the Country Dance and Song Society of America, and is preparing more books on early American dance.

Please inform your dancers of the dates now. The fee will be only $8.00 for three instruction sessions, syllabus, Saturday dinner, and three hearty snacks. This weekend promises to be in the finest Miami Valley Folk Dancer tradition. Do share in making it the best we have ever had on the occasion of our "Happy Birthday, U.S.A."

A complete invitation will be sent to our mailing list before January 25. Send additional addresses for mailing to Ann Ballinger, 210 Virginia Avenue, Dayton, Ohio 45410.

We are looking forward to seeing you on February 14 and 15.

As always,

Dear Leaders and Instructors of Folk Dance,

On February 14 and 15, in celebration of the American Bicentennial, the Miami Valley Folk Dancers will present for a workshop of early American dancing, James Morrison, who in 1975 became the director of the American Country Dance and Song Society. After attending his Pittsburgh workshop, I felt that the folk dancers, who have been coming to our weekends, would appreciate the unique opportunity to celebrate our nation's birthday with us, doing the charming dances of our forefathers, under the direction of this excellent young instructor and musician, and the group agreed!

Under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, Jim has researched and revived the early American dance tradition. He edited A Choice Selection of American Country Dances of the Revolutionary Era 1775-1795, published by the Country Dance and Song Society of America, and is preparing more books on early American dance.

Please inform your dancers of the dates now. The fee will be only $8.00 for three instruction sessions, a Saturday dinner, and three hearty snacks. This weekend promises to be in the finest Miami Valley Folk Dance tradition. No phase in making it the best we have ever had on the occasion of our "Happy Birthday, U.S.A."

A complete invitation will be sent to our mailing list before January 25. Send additional addresses for mailing to Ann Ballinger, 210 Virginia Avenue, Dayton, Ohio 45410.

We are looking forward to seeing you on February 14 and 15.

As always,

Grace Hooff