

SECOND MVFD COUNCIL MEETING - 1976

DATE: 22 Jan 1976 7:00 P.M.

PLACE: Michael Boloman Pavilion

ATTENDEES: Council - S. Ballinger, V. Fisher, F. Hart, M. Hill, J. Pappas
Consultant - Florence Seger
Publicity - Ann Ballinger
Program Committee - C. Castellano, F. Donley, L. Hyll,

CHAIRING: Vera Fisher M. Laycock, & G. Wolff.

OLD BUSINESS: The format of the evening as outlined at the last council meeting was adopted. Discussion centered on the fact that this would be open to newcomers or present members. The program committee would be in charge of the hour but the teacher for any particular dance would be anyone that the committee chose. The teacher would assume that no one knew the dance. This would set the mood that everyone would be on an equal basis. The dances to be taught or retaught would be announced the previous week. Free to members but fifty cents to guests.

NEW BUSINESS: 1) Grace Wolff gave a status report on the Bicentennial weekend scheduled for Feb. 14 & 15, 1976. James Morrison, director of the Country Dance and Song Society of America is the guest teacher. It will be held at Lohrey Center. Flyers have been sent out. Committees are being formed.

2) Cost for the Bicentennial weekend:
MVFD members - Free if they work on some committee.
Associate members - $3.50 plus work on some committee.
Anyone else - As outlined on the flyer.

3) It was decided that the program committee is to pick their own chairman. (See Note below.)

ADJOURNED: at 7:45 P.M.

NOTE: The program committee held a separate meeting afterwards and elected Grace Wolff as the chairman.

Respectfully submitted,

John E. Pappas, Secretary
