PLACE: Home of Sam and Ann Ballinger

ATTENDEES: V. Fisher, F. Hart, S. Ballinger, J. Pappas, M. Hill

CHAIRING: Vera Fisher

REPORTS: The minutes of the last meeting were approved as read.

The treasurer's report was given:

Petty cash	$81.95
Savings	$1007.82
Checking	$87.82
Total	$1177.59

OLD BUSINESS:** John Pappas reported that George Tomov was retained as the instructor for the Balkan weekend on Nov. 13,14, 1976. Lohrey Center has been reserved, however it was suggested that a larger center be reserved instead.

**Madge Hart reported that plans are progressing for the Spring weekend celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Miami Valley Folk Dancers. Jane Farwell is anticipated as being the dance instructor. Frank Hart and Grace Wolf are the other members of this committee.

The financial statement for the Bicentennial weekend was presented by Sam Ballinger. A copy is attached.

NEW BUSINESS: The Tri-City Festival will be held on 10 April 1976 at the University YMCA in Cincinnati, Ohio. John Pappas was asked to teach 2 dances at the festival - "Convention Cotillion" and "Sevdalino, Maloj Mome". It was unanimously decided that the club would pay the fees for all members in good standing that would attend the festival.

A 50¢ Profit will accrue to our club from the sale of Greater Dayton Dance Council cookbooks.

The recommendation from Grace Wolf to stagger the membership of the program committee was tabled indefinitely.

It was decided to have a 5 minute break at 9:00 P.M. for the dues and guest fees to be collected by the treasurer.

Ann Ballinger was asked to buy a good present for the forthcoming marriage of Florence Seger.

ADJOURNED: at 8:24 P.M.

** Madge Hart and John Pappas were asked to chair these committees at 2 informal meetings held by the council during the regular Thursday evening programs.

Respectfully submitted,

John E. Pappas, Secretary
