Dear John:

Thank you so much for your delightful note of July 30th which greeted me on my return from my Yugoslavian tour with my group of American tourists. I shall indeed be sending you the syllabus of the dances which I shall be teaching and pray that you be patient while I get these together and have them done up.

How very kind of you to offer me the hospitality of your home. I cannot tell you how much I appreciate this, but I already have a previous commitment. You probably know Kaye Pries who has invited me to stay at her home. I have known her for years and since her invitation came to me a very, very long time ago, I must accept it. She is a very dear friend and a great aficionado of the folkdance.

What pleases me most about the prospect of coming to Dayton is the thought that I shall be spending a lot of time with you and your people which will give me enormous pleasure.

I thought that you would be pleased to know that my Ballet Company is having a gala performance a week after I am with you. My twenty-five dancers, singers, and musicians will be performing at the Edward J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall in Akron, Ohio on Saturday night, the 20th of November, 1976. I hope we will have a good turnout, and I hope you will spread the word throughout all your dance aficionados so that I can count on my audience, not only you, but a great many of your pupils' friends and people who love you.

I shall be sending you the itinerary soon, and in the meantime, I send you the warmest expression of my esteem.

Very sincerely yours,

George Tomov
