Mr. John E. Pappas
Miami Valley Folk Dancers
3017 E. Rahn Road
Dayton, Ohio 45440

Dear Mr. Pappas:

Just back from his tours of Yugoslavia, George Tomov had time to pop into the office to give me the enclosed syllabi with instructions to rush them to you and to repeat the news to you about his Gala performance with his own company on Saturday evening November 20th, 1976 at the Edw. J. Thomas Perf. Arts Hall in Akron. (We hope you and a good representative Dayton crowd will be there in the audience to cheer his dancers and him.

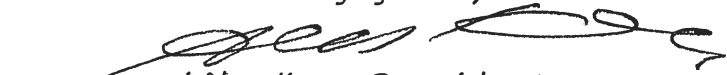

While he will NOT teach ALL of the dances in the two enclosed syllabi, he will be teaching some which are not in them (he has not yet made up his mind just what to bring you - he generally bases the dances he wishes to teach on the mood, abilities and wishes of the folks who come to the sessions.)

Amongst the relatively easier dances which he proposes to DAYTON are in the enclosed and they are:

SA	SLAV KOLO	KOLJINO ORO
	POVRATENO	ZALNA MAJKA
	KOPRIVA	RAVNO ORO
		SKUDRINKA

Confident that George's visit with you and your MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCERS will make for an unforgettable occasion in your calendar of distinguished visiting teachers, I am

Sincerely yours,

Alb. Kay, President
