Mary Ann Herman Week-end cost Breakdown is on attached flyer. Ann reports all details now taken care of.

Hylls report that the Spring week-end is set with Yves Moreau for March 15 & 16. Request that advertising be set for Viltis.

Tri-City--both Marilyn Bishop and Jewell Steed have declined to chair this event. Council requested that Louise Van Vliet be asked to be in charge of program and that the Krainz's be in charge of the meal.

Fans are in the roof. Nothing further has been said on the payment of same or of all agreement to decorate the men's bathroom. Mady did say she had received our letter.

Council would like to request once more that Rere Anna get a large coffee pot as she hasn't gotten anything yet.

Mike Moser is now a new member.

New Year's Eve party will once again be at the Odd Fellows Lodge on La Belle and Fifth St. Council asks that the Guess's to be in charge with request that the food be a little heavier. Program committee takes care of dancing.

Program committee survey showed that club likes to give programs as couples. There will be 50 weeks of programs next year. If everyone gives a program, it will be 40 weeks before starting over. Ethnic suggestions are Bulgarian, Armenian, and Nostalgia (dances done by club in past). The suggestion to have a KDI Sunday was turned down by the committee, but they did say that the dances learned there could be taught on appropriate ethnic Sundays.
