

SPECIAL MEETING OF MIAMI VALLEY FOLK DANCE COUNCIL

July 8, 1982

A special meeting of the MVFD Council was held at Solomon Pavilion on Thursday evening, July 8, at 7:00 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting was to decide upon a price to charge for the fall workshop with Tom Bosigan. John estimated our cost would be around $1,500. In order to take in that much, he suggested we charge members $13.00 for the entire weekend - Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday sessions (including Saturday dinner and syllabus). The charge for outsiders would be $18.00 for the entire weekend. Based on a projected attendance of 45 members and 55 outsiders (total 100), we would take in $1575.00.

Another package to be offered would be for everything except the Friday evening workshop - cost for members $12.00 and for outsiders $17.00.

Breaking down the individual sessions, dinner, and syllabus, the charges would be as follows:

Friday evening	$3.50
Saturday morning	3.50
Saturday afternoon	3.50
Saturday dinner	5.00
Saturday evening	3.50
Sunday afternoon	3.50
Syllabus	1.00
TOTAL	$23.50

Council agreed on the above charges.

It was reported that no information had yet been received on the possibility of a Russian and/or Romanian workshop.

Date for the next regular meeting was set for Tuesday evening, September 7, 7:30 p.m., at Peggy Booher's home.

Respectfully submitted,
