

The Miami Valley Folk Dancers will sponsor a

Greek Folk Dance Workshop

with

John Pappas

July 7th and 8th, 1990

Saturday, July 7, 1990: Lohrey Center, 2366 Glenarm Av., Dayton, Ohio

Sunday, July 8, 1990: Solomon Pavilion, 2917 Berkley, Dayton, Ohio

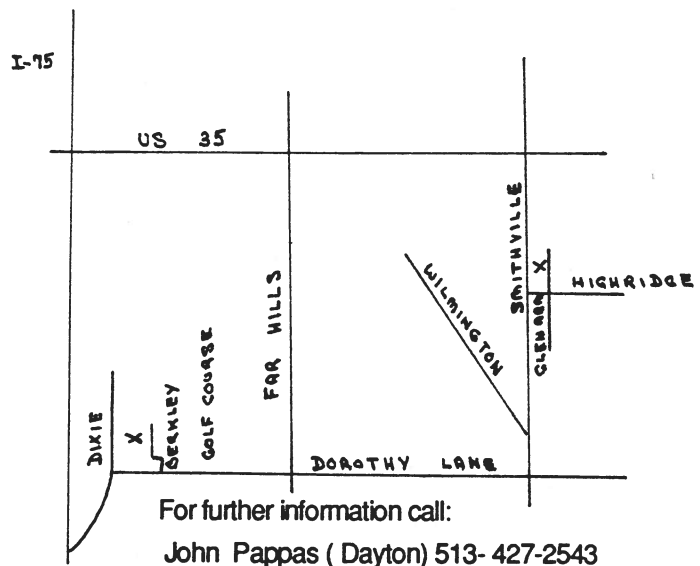

It is indeed a unique opportunity to have John Pappas of California bring to the Dayton area his well-known expertise in Greek music and dance. In addition to being an authority on Greek dance, he is also an accomplished musician (bouzouki and clarinet). Both he and his wife play in a Greek band in southern California. Music and dance is a family affair, and his family will join him in bringing the culture of Greece to Dayton, Ohio.

Saturday, (Lohrey Center)

Morning Teaching	10:00 - 12:30	$4.00
Afternoon Teaching	2:00 - 5:00	$4.00
Greek Dinner	6:00 - 7:30	$7.00
Culture Corner	7:30 - 8:00
Party and Review	8:00 - 11:00	$4.00

Sunday, (Solomon Pavilion)

Request Dancing	1:00 - 2:00
Afternoon Teaching	2:00 - 5:00	$4.00
Syllabus		$1.00
Total		$24.00
Weekend Package		$22.00

Dinner reservations must be received by June 30, 1990. Please send payment to:
Miami Valley Folk Dancers, c/o John Pappas, 2922 Southfield, Beavercreek, Ohio 45385

Name _____ Amount Enclosed _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Payment enclosed for: Entire Weekend Dinner Reservations only