

Second Meeting of the 1993 Miami Valley Folk Dance Council
February 15, 1993 Ballinger's home.

Attendance: Harry Khamis, Mike Clark, Pat Gehring, Sam
Ballinger, Carolyn Stovall

Harry Khamis opened the meeting at 7:20 p.m.

The coming fall workshop will be Polish and will be chaired by John Pappas and Joan Dombrowski. Ada Dziewanowska, the Mareks and Morley Leyron are possible leadership choices.

The Muntu mini-workshop in cooperation with CityFolk will be Feb. 25, Thursday 8-10 p.m. The club cost is $200. Participation will be free to members and $3.00 for non-members.

The Program Committee has lined up the first six months of ethnic Sundays. Because of declining attendance at some Ethnic Sundays, the committee discussed this topic at length, but did not come up with a recommendation for change. The committee has suggested that we keep the Sunday programs of one tradition only, but put more thought into balancing the programs, that is--easy to hard, line and couple.

Pip printing will make 500 copies of the club's letterhead at five cents a copy. Council agreed to purchase 100 sheets of the stationary with the letterhead.

Tri-City report--Mike Clark reporting.

It will be April 17 at Westgate Masonic Hall. Due to the expense of this facility, attendance will be $13.50 each. There will be an Ethnic Bazaar(you may bring items to sell). They will have a silent auction. Also Joan Amsterdam will sell her wares. Each club will have 40 minutes of teaching. We should teach something from our more recent workshops. The club will pay $3.00 of each member's way to Tri-City. Push this at announcement time.

Jane Farwell is terminally ill.

Open-house is May 20. Publicity should try the following: flyers to MVDC leadership, newspapers, TV coverage, if possible, and Dance Council news.

MVDC Pat Gehring announced the council's new officers. She filed our bid of Jewell and Kenneth Steed for Honor Roll Couple. Sam will send insurance check to the MVDC Treasurer.

Treasurer's Report showed a balance of $2,665.14 We sent $25 to Hospice in memory of Roseanne Gessel.

Our club's turn to clean the Pavilion is Tuesday, March 2.

Meeting adjourned at 8:45 p.m. Next meeting will be called.

Respectfully submitted,

Carolyn Stovall, Secretary
