

The Miami Valley Folk Dancers present
Wim Bekooy
teaching International and Dutch Folk Dances

Thursday, July 11, 1996

7:30 - 10:30 pm

Admission: $3.00 non-members
 $1.00 MVFD members

Location: Michael Solomon Pavilion (see back for map & directions)

About Wim: A resident of Leiden and leader of two dance groups in The Netherlands, Wim has studied dance in the Balkans as well as in Holland. He studied at Rotterdamse Dansacademie and received a diploma in dance from Landelijk Centrum Amateurdans in 1988, with an emphasis on folk dance, folklore, and teaching dance. He is currently director of the folk dance group Plesjati and is co-director of Nitsanim, an international performing group. In 1990 he received an award to develop and stage his choreography of a suite of dances based on his studies of Dutch song and dance.

Receipts
Expense:

Fee
Meal

$62.00
~~150.00~~
13.32

IN THE RED

$101.32

S. F. Ballinger