

Wim Bekooy – A resident of Leiden and leader of two dance groups in The Netherlands, Wim has studied dance in the Balkans (six separate study tours) as well as in Holland. He studied at Rotterdamse Dansacademie and received a diploma in dance from Landelijk Centrum Amateurdans (Utrecht) in 1988, with an emphasis on folk dance, folklore, and teaching dance. He is currently director of the folk dance group Plesjati in Alphen Aan de Rijn and is co-director of Nitsanim, another international performing group based in The Hague. In 1990, he received an award to develop and stage his choreography of a suite of dances based on his studies of Dutch song and dance. In 1997, his staging of a suite of Dutch dances received best choreography at the Zywiec (Poland) International Folk Dance Festival. For this weekend, Wim will be teaching dances from the Balkans, Central and Western Europe, the Middle East, and China.
