Vicky Goodloe

hails from Kentucky. She began dancing at age 4 and opened her own Scottish dance studio in 1981. She earned her Preliminary Certificate from the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society in Kingston, Ontario in 1978 and the Teacher's Certificate at St. Andrews, Scotland in 1980. She is a Member of the British Association of Teachers of Dance with certification in Highland Dancing. Vicky taught at our group back in 1991; she was such fun, and we enjoyed her dances so much, that we are delighted to have her back!

Steve Kotansky

was raised in the San Francisco area and now lives in New York. While in California, he danced with the prestigious AMAN Folk Ensemble in Los Angeles. Steve has traveled extensively in Europe, especially Romania, and lived in Germany for seven years. He started giving workshops in the U.S. in 1980 and has since taught at every major North American festival and camp. He also serves as consultant to several Hungarian folk ensembles. We welcome Steve for the first time to the Miami Valley Folk Dancers!

50th anniversary t-shirts and polo shirts can be ordered at the workshop.

Joan Amsterdam's "International Folk Rhythms" shop will be set up with a wide variety of folk music, clothing, and articles for sale.
